

SALON MENLO PRESENTS

WILLIAM
SHAKESPEARE'S
A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

There is no time like mid-summer to appreciate A Midsummer Night's Dream—a Shakespearian comedy featuring mistaken identities, a play within a play, unrequited love, and some magical transformations.

Please join us for a magically transforming afternoon on Sunday, August 22nd at 1:00 pm in the Fireside Room of the City of Menlo Park's Burgess Recreation Center (701 Laurel Street) for a FREE discussion of the play, screening of film clips from 20th century film adaptations, FREE Farmer's Market brunch and Peet's coffee, and some live scene readings by local actors.

If you would like to read a scene from A Midsummer Night's Dream, choose a monologue that is no more than five minutes long and contact Lauren John at lzjohn@att.net a week beforehand and let her know what you plan to do.

This is our sixth program brought to you by the Friends of the late Dr. Al Jacobs, longtime professor at Menlo College, through a fund administered by the Friends of the Menlo Park Library. This month, thanks to the efforts of reference librarian and film maker Nick Szegda, we also received a $750 grant from the Pacific Library Partnership—an organization of four leading Bay Area library systems. Thanks Pacific Library Partnership! <http://plpinfo.org/> And thanks Nick. And thanks to members like you. Maybe one day we will have tote bags.

Last but not least—Kepler's bookstore has reasonably priced copies of the play. You can also read it online: <http://shakespeare.mit.edu/midsummer/full.html>
